ONE OF THE BEST.

Sch. Annie Greenlaw Has Fine Mackerel Fare.

Her Skipper Is a Former Crack-a-Jack.

Sch. Annie Greenlaw, whose arrival was reported at New York in our first edition, has one of the finest mackerel fares of the season, 15,000 fish in count, which are selling at 15 cents apiece. This will give her one of the best single trip stocks thus far this year.

Her commander, Capt. H. M. McKown of Boothbay Harbor, Me., is an older brother of Capt. George and Elar McKown, and although he has not been seining for some time up to this year, is well known in mackerel circles as being for years one of the leading skippers of the seining fleet.

Fine Trip.

Sch. Senator, Capt. Nathaniel Greenleaf, arrived this morning from Green Bank with a fine fare of 40,000 pounds of halibut. Capt. Greenleaf, we are pleased to note is doing finely.

Used Herring Bait.

Sch. E. C. Hussey, Capt. John Smith, which arrived this morning with the largest Rips cod fare this season, used fresh herring for bait, instead of cockles.
